

BARNET

(L. R. Peck, Correspondent.)
The reception held at the home of Mrs. Ira Albee by the W. C. T. U. last Thursday evening for the teachers in town as well as a number of ex-teachers were among the number present. The program consisted of singing, also readings, and talks on scientific temperance instruction. Rev. W. C. Clark and Dr. H. A. Elliott advanced some excellent ideas on the subject. Delicious refreshments of punch and wafers were served by the hostess and social committee at the close of the meeting, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

Hereafter the Christian Endeavor meeting which has been held at 7.30 Sunday evening will be held at 7 o'clock.

Alice Gravia is on the sick list. Sixteen relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Meroa Nelson Sunday afternoon. Those from out of town were Miss Lynette Nutting, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thayer and son of Woodville, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Douse and daughter, Hazel, of Peacham, Mrs. Mabel McConach of McIndoes, Alton Leonard of East Ryegate, Fred Crozier of Brockton, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and children, and Miss Eva Leonard of Barnet.

George Hadley is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lee and daughter, Miss Bertha Lee of East St. Johnsbury were guests Saturday at the Johnson House.

Misses Ellen Hazelton and Laura Dow and Arthur Reck, Jr., visited A. L. Guthrie and family at McIndoes, Sunday.

Ora Proctor is working in the freight house at Barton for a few days.

Max Holbrook was home from Windsor over Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Waldo is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Ralph Harding at Monroe.

Eugene Shaw of Toronto has been visiting at Jerry White's.

Mrs. S. Baker and daughter, Dorothy, of Woodville, were guests at L. E. Gilliland's, Saturday night. Dorothy remained and will attend school here.

There will be a sewing meeting of the Ladies' society at the school house hall Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will also be a business meeting of the society.

Mr. Powers of Lyndonville is camping at Harvey's Pond a few days.

Miss Emma Lindsay of Greenboro was a guest at D. L. Judkin's, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goodrich of McIndoes Falls accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ned Somers and Mrs. Lillian Peck, took an auto trip to Newport Saturday, going by the way of Willoughby Lake and West Charleston, returning by the way of Barton, Glover and Sheffield.

Mrs. Minnie Adams of Concord, who has been visiting at David Adams' the past two weeks, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Abbie Harvey was a St. Johnsbury visitor Monday.

Bert Wilson moved his household goods to St. Johnsbury Monday, where he is to have a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill and child of Lebanon have been spending a few days at Peter Raymond's.

Moses Simonds and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker of Lisbon, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunter of Ely were visitors at Charles Parker's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer of Passumpsic spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watts.

Foster Campbell of Lyndon visited his mother, Mrs. M. E. Campbell, Sunday.

Mrs. Carroll Grout and two children of St. Johnsbury visited her uncle, Freeman Amidon, and family, over Sunday, enroute from New York.

Mrs. B. L. Gabley, who was on the sick list last week, is much better and able to be about.

Mrs. A. H. Hoyt and son, Ned, of Chelsea, Mass., returned home Monday, after spending five weeks with relatives in town.

A. E. Carter took an auto trip through the mountains, Sunday.

Albert Chester spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Anna Moore Dodge of Somerville, Mass., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Albee over Sunday.

W. H. Burbank called on friends in McIndoes, Saturday.

E. A. Morgan has returned from his trip to Boston, Mass., and Tilton, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Porrest and daughter, Miss Alice, Mrs. Warren Chapman, Harold Somers and Sumner Gilliland, attended the reception at McIndoes Academy Friday evening.

Fred Gilliland spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Johanna Hall has returned from Danville where she has been caring for Charles Dole, Jr.

Misses Dorcas Ayer, Marjorie Albee and Katherine Robie were home from Lyndon Institute over Sunday.

Max Chapman, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chapman had the misfortune to fall and break his arm Saturday. The child was climbing into a dining chair and fell, striking in such a way as to break the arm below the elbow.

George Lowry has finished work in the blacksmith shop here and is at work for the Cross Bakery Co., at St. Johnsbury.

Loren Elliott left here for Burlington Saturday where he is to enter U. V. M.

William Smiley of East Barnet spent part of last week at John Robinson's.

D. R. Gilchrist of Monroe was a visitor at the home of John Gilchrist, Saturday.

Theodore and George Amidon were St. Johnsbury visitors Saturday.

Mrs. E. A. Willey attended a meeting of librarians of Essex, Orleans and Caledonia counties, held at Orleans Wednesday, Sept. 26. She was entertained by Mrs. L. E. Spafford.

Mrs. Wilbur Nelson was a St. Johnsbury visitor Wednesday.

George Blair has recently purchased a farm including stock, farming tools, etc. The farm is situated about three miles from St. Johnsbury on the Waterford road.

Mrs. Kate Kinney has finished work at James Gilliland's.

Thomas McConach, Loren and Howard Elliott were in Lyndonville Thursday.

Fred Crozier of Brockton, Mass., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Meroa Nelson.

Advertised letters remaining at the postoffice are: Mr. G. S. Rose, Helen F. Rosemore, Mr. H. E. Hart, Mrs. Carter, Proctor, Mr. Frank Dubois.

Mrs. John Gilchrist spent Thursday in Woodville.

Mrs. George Blair is visiting her daughter, Miss Nancy Blair, in West Lebanon.

Fred Gilliland spent Thursday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Fairbanks and two children are spending a few days with Mrs. Fairbanks' daughter, Miss Belle Fairbanks.

Mrs. Ira Albee, Mrs. W. S. Brock, Miss Bertha Harris and Rev. W. C. Clark attended the Sunday school convention at St. Johnsbury, Wednesday.

The men have finished setting electric light poles between here and Boltonville.

Mrs. Belle Waldo and Miss Edith Wallace accompanied Mrs. Margaret Haywood on an auto trip to Willoughby Lake and vicinity Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Johnson, Mrs. C. H.

Gilliland and guest, Mrs. Minnie, were visitors in St. Johnsbury, Wednesday.

Harry Hill of Boston was a business visitor in town, Thursday.

Mrs. Fred H. Gibson of Monroe visited her sister, Mrs. E. A. Willey, Thursday.

Mrs. E. B. Chase attended the Howe's Travel Festival at St. Johnsbury Thursday evening.

Miss Mabel Davidson, who has been spending a week with relatives in town returned to her home in Charlmont, Mass., Wednesday.

Mrs. Johanna Hall is nursing in Danville.

Mrs. Martin Turner returned home Wednesday, after spending a week with friends in Haverhill, Mass., and vicinity. She made the trip by auto with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown of Waterford.

E. D. Somers was a St. Johnsbury visitor Wednesday.

Miss Belle Fairbanks spent Wednesday in St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Lilla Libbey of Lyndonville arrived in town Wednesday. She is to have charge of the central telephone office here beginning today.

Mrs. Libbey and Miss Alice McLam, teacher in the primary room, are boarding at E. O. Willson's.

Mrs. George Brown and Miss Mary Robie were visitors in McIndoes Wednesday.

John Laundry was a St. Johnsbury visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert Parker of McIndoes spent Wednesday with her daughter, Mrs. Ned Somers.

Mrs. Jonathan Watts of Passumpsic spent Wednesday with her son, Richard Watts, and wife.

Mrs. John Smith has returned to her home in New York, after spending three weeks with relatives in this vicinity.

Edward Johnson spent Friday in Woodville.

Elmer McGaffey, a former resident of Barnet, now of Boston, Mass., called on friends in town Friday.

Quite a lot of attention was paid at the station Friday when a "traction engine" was being unloaded for Homer Smith of Monroe. It was the first one to be used in this vicinity.

Mrs. Mabel McConach of McIndoes is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Meroa Nelson, and brother, Frank Crozier, of Brockton, Mass.

Hugh Kirkland was a guest at Perley Ayer's, Thursday night.

Mrs. Julius Lang and daughter, Nora, of Monroe, spent Friday at John Robinson's.

Miss Belle Fairbanks is spending a few days with her parents at West Burke.

SUTTON.

(H. A. Blake, Correspondent.)

The remains of Warner Jessiman, who died at Springfield, Mass., were brought to town Saturday afternoon and the funeral was held Sunday afternoon, with the burial at the cemetery in the Union House neighborhood. Warner was the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jessiman, who reside in the neighborhood named above. His wife is the daughter of Mrs. Albert Clark of this town, and with two or three small children is left without the assistance of a husband and father.

A. D. Fogg has sold the farm on the North Ridge known as the Charles Foster place, to Walter J. Buch.

Mrs. T. J. Mitchell is visiting her son at Enfield, N. J.

John Dean, who has been at his home here, has returned to Lewiston, Me., where he is attending Bates college.

Mr. and Mrs. Corydon Parker, who have been visiting friends at Danville, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Benware from North Troy visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Craig, the past week.

Miss Lydia Holmes, Pearl Wheeler and Hartley Butterfield from the village and several others in town are attending Lyndon Institute the present term.

Charles McKown is quite low and but very faint hopes for his recovery. Dr. Aldrich from St. Johnsbury has been to see him with Dr. Dickerman, the attending physician.

Mrs. F. W. Barber is very feeble. A trained nurse, Miss Abbie Chapman, is caring for her.

Rev. C. R. Upton and Louis Gordon are at the Baptist state convention at Chester this week.

Bert Green and H. J. Bradbury have each bought an automobile recently.

W. A. Kelley and wife from Derby were recent visitors in town on the North Ridge. Mrs. Kelley's early home, she being a daughter of the last Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Curtis.

A school is being run on the East Ridge this fall and no school is run on the North Ridge. The scholars there are attending at West Burke.

Mrs. John P. Buzzell, who lived near West Burke, died Sept. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nichols from Brownington were recent visitors at W. Ingalls'. Mrs. Ingalls being a sister of Mr. Nichols'.

Miss Ethel Hogge, who taught the village school last year, is to teach the school, "Maple Lane," near Byron Bundy's.

John Stevens and lady from Woodville, N. H., were at his home here Saturday, Sept. 17.

Miss Millie Richardson and nieces have gone to Lyndon Center to attend Lyndon Institute for the school year. More scholars from Sutton are attending Lyndon Institute than ever before.

Will Curtis, who has been in town through the summer, has returned to his home at Barre.

Advertised letters.

Letters advertised for week ending September 23: Ladies, Mrs. Mabbie Bain; gentlemen, Fred Duval, Mr. and Mrs. John Libbey, Louis M. Ross, C. A. Silner, Arthur Velly, H. W. Williams.

A BAD SUMMER FOR CHILDREN.

There has been an unusual amount of dangerous sickness among children everywhere this summer. Extra precaution should be taken to keep the bowels open and regular and the liver active. Foley's Cathartic Tablets are a fine and wholesome physic; cause no pain, nausea or griping. They relieve indigestion, sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath or other conditions caused by clogged bowels.

CHARLES A. SEARLES & CO.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER.

Death of Ariel Aldrich—Harvest Home Services—Personals.

(Edith McLaughlin, Correspondent.)
Ariel Aldrich died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Horace Ayer, last Thursday night of heart failure, aged 71 years, 8 months and 16 days. He was the son of William and Clarinda (Stevens) Aldrich and was born in St. Johnsbury. His mother died when he was but two weeks old, and he has made his home with his sister, Mrs. Horace Ayer, for the last 45 years.

His health had been failing since last spring, but he was sick only about 24 hours at the last. He leaves one brother, Hiram Aldrich of this place, besides his sister. The funeral services were held at his home Sunday afternoon at 1.30. Rev. C. L. Eaton assisted by the Rev. R. S. Caldwell conducted the services. Interment was in the village cemetery. Those called from out of town were Ephraim and Ezra Sanger and sister of Lyndon, Mrs. Roanay Nichols of St. Johnsbury and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Ayer of Waterford.

The "Harvest Home" services held at the First Congregational church last Sunday were well attended, there being over 100 present. The pastor, the Rev. R. S. Caldwell, delivered an excellent sermon from the text James I, 17th verse. The choir rendered music especially suitable for the occasion. A vocal duet sung by Perley D. Bacon and Mrs. Perley Hutchinson was enjoyed by all. The church was beautifully decorated with fruits, vegetables, grain, flowers and autumn leaves.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Granger Friday afternoon.

Wide Awake Grange, No. 66, held its regular meeting Saturday evening. After the usual business meeting the following program was rendered: Song by Grange, "I Love the Dear Old Farm;" reading, "The Turkish Bath," Charles Butler; vocal solo, Mrs. Eastman; discussion, "Are the Girls of Today as Good Housekeepers as They Used to Be?" Piano solo, Mrs. Colbath; reading, "The Interrogation Point," Mrs. Learned; vocal solo, Mrs. Eastman; reading, Charles Butler. Report of New England teachers' conference held in Burlington Aug. 2nd and 3rd was then given.

The Ladies' Aid of the Congregational church will meet in their vestry Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newell and son, Graham, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry.

Dr. T. R. Stiles moved his family into his new home in the village last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beck of St. Johnsbury spent the week-end with Mrs. Beck's brother, Bert McLaughlin and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dow of St. Johnsbury have purchased the house occupied by Frank Granger of Mrs. Horace Ayer and expect to move in as soon as Mr. Granger vacates.

Miss Madeline Chaffee, who has been spending the past four weeks at her home here, returned to her work in Lowell, Mass., on Monday.

Mrs. Dean Hall, who was operated on at Brightlook hospital, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Addie Page is spending some time with friends in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Shaskey of Beebe called on Mrs. Eliza Allen on Saturday.

At the regular Sunday afternoon services of the Universalist church held at Green Mountain hall next Sunday the Rev. C. L. Eaton will preach from the subject, "If Universalism is True Why Preach It?"

Miss Grace Clark of Nashua, N.

H., visited Miss Bertha Salmon last week.

Mrs. Herbert Spinney, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Sylvia Powers, returned to her home in Lynn, Mass., last week.

W. E. Harvey and Ralph Johnson of Windsor spent the week-end at their homes here.

Mrs. Frank Hooker of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. Jesse Gage of West Somerville, Mass., visited Mrs. E. H. Hallett last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Sherry of Worcester, Mass., visited their grandmother, Mrs. Sherry, last week.

A team driven by Wendall Massey and Clarence Colby and Will Beauregard's team driven by the Misses Iva Sawyer and Maude Miles collided at the lower end of the village Saturday night. The occupants of both teams were thrown from the wagons and Massey's wagon somewhat broken, but luckily the occupants of both teams escaped with little injury.

Mrs. Lenora Ware of Coventry is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Horace Ayer, and family.

The weekly prayer meeting of the M. E. church will be held with Mrs. Dickinson Wednesday evening.

E. M. Massey is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred Gee, in Putney for a few days.

Mrs. Will Roberts is visiting Mr. Roberts' sister in Lakeport, N. H., for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McLeod entertained a party of friends at their home last Friday evening. The time was spent in dancing. Light refreshments were served.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Wilcock, Mrs. S. K. Huse, Mrs. J. Forsythe, Mrs. Ellen Granger and Mrs. Lillias Huntley, delegates from the M. E. church, and Rev. R. S. Caldwell, A. B. Pringle and Mrs. Frank Granger, delegates from the First Congregational church, attended the Sunday school convention at Grace M. E. church last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lyman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Borland and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Borland and daughter, Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dewing and Avis Bowen of West Glover spent Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shattuck.

Mrs. George Hanscom of Hyde Park, Mass., spent Wednesday with her sister, Miss Martha Hill.

Mrs. Henry Pringle and two children, who have been visiting Mr. Pringle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pringle, for several weeks, returned to their home in Washington, D. C., last Tuesday.

E. A. Gray will have an auction sale of all his live stock, hay and farming tools Thursday, Oct. 6.

GREENBORO.

Nils Lundberg Suffered Heavy Loss By Neglecting His Coat.

(Geo. A. Porter, Correspondent.)
Nils Lundberg took his coat off and hung it on the corner of a cart body near by while fixing his car, and later some one wishing to draw dirt in the cart, threw the coat over some other article, and still later Nils discovered that a pocketbook containing $85 was gone from the coat pocket, and also some papers valuable to him, including his birth certificate and his chauffeur's license. It is not known whether someone removed the articles or they dropped out into the cart unnoticed and were dumped with the dirt in the highway.

There was a good attendance at the moving picture show at Town hall Saturday evening, given for the benefit of the local band.

Judge and Mrs. W. P. Stafford left town Wednesday intending to visit friends in St. Johnsbury a few days before returning to Washington.

Mr. Behan and niece, Mrs. Charles Bear, left camp at the lake for Detroit Saturday morning.

Mrs. Charles Johnson closed her cottage Friday and returned to Cleveland, Ohio.

Friday Dr. Kinney took Miss Ruth Williams to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington for an operation for appendicitis. The operation was successfully performed Saturday morning.

Mrs. Hettie Goodrich and son, Charles, returned from Burlington Saturday. Charles is recovering rapidly from his operation.

Mrs. McKenzle has sold her building lot at the lake for $550 to Mr. Stone of Hardwick.

The ladies of Caspian Lake Grange served a harvest supper at their new dining room Friday and realized about $19 by the effort.

Mrs. Sherwood Eddy spoke at the Congregational church Sunday morning to a good sized audience, which was very much interested in her talk of the people of Korea.

SOUTH WHEELOCK.

(Mrs. Lucy Weed, Correspondent.)
David Lord and family of Lunenburg visited his brother, George Lord, last week.

Mrs. Dunn, who has been stopping with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Hudson, has returned to her home in Island Pond.

Will Buskett and wife of Lyndonville spent Sunday at H. C. Sherburne's.

George Weed returned home Monday having spent several days with relatives in Franklin, N. H.

Mrs. Rexford's father and mother of Canada spent Sunday at the Rexford home.

Mrs. V. R. Weed returned home last Friday having spent the past few weeks with friends in St. Johnsbury.

WALDEN.

(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.)
Rev. and Mrs. J. Q. Angell took an auto ride to the Sunday school convention at St. Johnsbury last week.

Mrs. Olive Cox of Hardwick was in town calling on friends Thursday.

Carl Wing of Springfield, Mass., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Herbert Cassidy.

Mrs. Leon Perkins and son are visiting at A. A. Scott's.

Miss Marion Badger is spending this week with friends in Barre and Montpelier.

Mrs. Louis Brill of Lyndon spent last week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cassidy.

Mrs. J. Q. Angell will entertain the Ladies' Mite society this week on Thursday afternoon.

George Cahoon is a business visitor in Barre this week.

WEST WATERFORD.

(Mrs. E. A. Blodgett, Correspondent.)
Stephen Hovey and family from Weehawken, N. J., who have been visiting his brother, returned to their home Wednesday.

The farmers are filling their silos.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hovey went Wednesday to Weehawken, N. J., to visit his two brothers and sister, Edna. They will make stops on their way.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children

In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of

W. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Copyright 1916 by W. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Slip a few Prince Albert smokes into your system!

You've heard many an earful about the Prince Albert patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets you smoke your fill without a comeback! Stake your bank roll that it proves out every hour of the day. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

There's sport smoking a pipe or rolling your own, but you know that you've got to have the right tobacco! We tell you Prince Albert will bang the doors wide open for you to come in on a good time firing up every little so often, without a regret!

You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin' cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing"!

PRINCE ALBERT
the national joy smoke

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO. Winston-Salem, N. C.

This is the reverse side of the tin

THE Prince Albert tin, and in fact, every Prince Albert package, has a real message to you on its reverse side. You'll read—Process Patented July 28th, 1907. That means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Everywhere tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in tippy red bags. See they're red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tins; humidor and tin that clever crystal-sponge-moistener top, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

For sale at all seasons of the year on short notice. For immediate attention order by telegraph, telephone or special delivery.

HAROLD P. WOOD Architect.

Graduate of the International Correspondence School.

</